Now in it's 10th year, London Asia Expo is the first trade show on the important European buying circuit. Featuring an array selection of essential and everyday items with emphasis on gifts, premiums, packaging, festive and seasonal decorations etc.

G. Hang long has been a leader in the field of tins-packaging, and we are delighted to participate in the fair for the first time. We welcome any custom projects and even if you don't have one, our experienced and professional team is at service to provide expert advices in translating your vision into reality.

Come visit us at our booth and let us stun you with our amazingly-splendid tins collection!
